LAST MEETING
By Ian McGovern

Our last meeting was a huge success. With over 50 brothers in attendance. During the meeting we had a demonstration on hammock camping by our Chapter Advisor Steve Mosley. The demonstration was extremely fun and afterwards some of the youth got to set up their hammocks on the frame.

CEREMONIES
By Owen

The Ceremonies committee has been doing its best in making sure that we are representing the Order of the Arrow at every event we go to. As a whole we have done a total of 16 Arrow of Lights. At call out on camporee weekend we had a total of 56 candidates get called out. We had 22 people help by holding torches or playing a part. I thought it was one of the coolest Ceremonies of the year. So as you see the Ceremonies team is been hard at work so everyone can watch and enjoy the Ceremonies we give you.

INDUCTIONS
By Ian McGovern

The inductions season is coming to an end. During the inductions season our team was hard at work running 19 troop elections within our chapter with over 100 youth eligible to complete their ordeal. This in no small part thanks to our great inductions chief Danny.
Movie Review

By Nick Scholl.

For at least the next two meetings, you may suggest a movie to Ian the Secretary at the beginning of the next meeting. They must be appropriate and scout related. (IF YOU HAVE TO ASK IF IT IS APPROPRIATE THEN IT IS PROBABLY NOT)

Follow Me, Boys! (1966)

Released December 1, 1966 is a screenplay adaptation of the scouting novel God and My Country written in 1954 by MacKinlay Cantor. Starring Fred MacMurray as a musician who moved into town and decided to help the young boys of the town by establishing a scout troop to prepare the boys for life. However, some of the boys aren’t all too enthusiastic about their new troop.

The movie has many uplifting messages about scouts and has a memorable score. But what is best about it is that it was one of the first movies to follow the theme of a teacher uplifting a bunch of troublemakers into smart young adults.
